place in the second week of illness and that normally a third week of complete rest is necessary for the patient to recover.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower's crack team of physicians has reported today he had "a comfortable night" and that his condition remains stable.

The 7 a.m. bulletin also announced that the President would be examined again later in the morning by one of the world's foremost heart specialists, Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston.

The latest word on Eisenhower's condition came after his doctors had described his Saturday heart attack as "moderate" — neither mild nor serious.

The medical report was put out by the doctors yesterday afternoon.

Today's terse advisory note was telephoned from Fitzsimons Army Hospital by White House press secretary James C. Hagerty, II.

"The President had a comfortable night," the statement said.

"The condition remains stable," Dr. White will see him again this morning.

It was signed by Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the White House physician, and by Col. Byron E. Pollock, chief of heart services at Fitzsimons.

Prayerful wishes for speedy recovery of the President, who will be 65 Oct. 14, poured into the temporary White House from all over the world.

At Fitzsimons where Eisenhower was taken Saturday afternoon, there was no thought of the tremendous political impact of the heart seizure which stunned the nation and people all around the globe.

That concern—and it is huge—was left to Republican party leaders who until the President was stricken had almost unanimously refused to entertain the idea that he might not be available for a second term.

Dr. White, an eminent heart specialist, said:

"Even if this is a mild case (and he later called it moderate), the President will be able to plan easy for a couple of months. If he gets by the next two weeks, then you can say he probably will be able to plan for a second term."

Nixon Goes Over Business Matters

WASHINGTON (AP) Vice President Nixon worked in his office at the Capitol today but said he might go to the White House later to "go over a few things" with President Eisenhower's top assistant, Sherman Adams.

Nixon told newsmen he thought he didn't want to comment at this point on the question of the President's delegating some of his duties to other officials.

"But it's quite clear, of course," he said, "that the attorney general must give an interpretation as to how some of the technical details can be handled."

By that, he said he meant such things as signing papers and the like.

After a term for President Eisenhower, he added before returning to Boston.

The attack seemed to have raised an overriding likelihood that Eisenhower would decide against leaving the office.

He said last Aug. 4 the state of his health would be an important factor in his decision.

Just a couple of weeks ago he told Republican chairman from the 46 states to dismiss from their minds the idea if the indispensable man — and no to "pin your flag" lightly to the mast.

Eisenhower's Illness Brings Concern

By United Press

Prominent persons throughout the world made the following comments on President Eisenhower's illness.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon said: "The only comment I will make is to express the concern that I share with all the American people for the early and complete recovery of the President."

Queen Elizabeth: "I am deeply concerned to hear of your illness. My husband (the Duke of Edinburgh) and I send our warmest good wishes for your speedy recovery."

Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin: "I deeply regret from the bottom of my heart the news of your illness and sincerely wish you as speedy a recovery as possible."

A Vatican spokesman for Pope Pius XII: "He prayed for the precious life of this man who has been elected to the highest office of peace among all men."

Maj. John Eisenhower, the President's son: "I don't even know if I will be able to see my father. I just want to give the family a little moral support."

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.): "That's terrible. . . I am awfully sorry. . . He's going through a very hard time. . . He's badly needed."

Italian Premier Antonio Segni: "The Italian people pray to God for your rapid recovery."

Adlai Stevenson: "The news of his heart attack is very distressing. . . I am deeply distressed to hear the news of your illness, and send my warmest wishes for a quick recovery."

Judy Pleased With Debut in Television

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (U) Judy Garland knew her voice was her husband said both she and her husband said: "It was worth it."

So did CBS-TV, where one spokesman labeled Judy's debut Saturday night as "the greatest personal triumph in the history of the network."

"We've never had anything like this happen before," he commented. "Our switchboards were still jammed 24 hours after the telecast."

People from all over the country called just to tell her how much they liked Judy. That's all. Just to tell CBS how much they liked her.

"We've never had such an intense personal reaction from viewers before," she said.

Judy and her producer husband Sid Luft got little sleep the night before. "They're all just like me," she said.

"It's just nerves," she said then. "I'll go away."

However, CBS really got worked when about 20 minutes before it always has before.

A golf course or a beach. All it takes to give Americans a more leisurely, untroubled life — and cut down on the toll of the "civilization sickness" — is to break with a few outmoded traditions.

Potential Candidates Plentiful

By JACK BILE

WASHINGTON (U) — Several potential candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination are being mentioned by the press.

Some Republican leaders are also being mentioned. That would leave the Democrats without a strong candidate for the 1960 election.

Judy Pleased With Debut in Television

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (U) Judy Garland knew her voice was her husband said both she and her husband said: "It was worth it."

So did CBS-TV, where one spokesman labeled Judy's debut Saturday night as "the greatest personal triumph in the history of the network."

"We've never had anything like this happen before," he commented. "Our switchboards were still jammed 24 hours after the telecast."

People from all over the country called just to tell her how much they liked Judy. That's all. Just to tell CBS how much they liked her.

"We've never had such an intense personal reaction from viewers before," she said.

Judy and her producer husband Sid Luft got little sleep the night before. "They're all just like me," she said.

"It's just nerves," she said then. "I'll go away."

However, CBS really got worked when about 20 minutes before it always has before.

A golf course or a beach. All it takes to give Americans a more leisurely, untroubled life — and cut down on the toll of the "civilization sickness" — is to break with a few outmoded traditions.

'Team Spirit' to Receive Sharp Test

By FRANK O'BRIEN

WASHINGTON (U) — The undetermined, possibly lengthy, convalescence ahead of President Eisenhower may test sharply the "team spirit" of the administration.

The President's absence from the White House may make Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey more than ever the teams strong.

Dug Ford Leads Sponsors Meet

NEWTON, Mass., (AP)—Husky Doug Ford, the national PGA titleholder from Yonkers, N. Y., carried a two-stroke lead with a nine under par 207 into the final round of the 72-hole Sponsors Golf Tour-ament at the Charles River Country Club today.

Ford struggled to a par 60 on the first nine yesterday, but cutting in he registered an eagle three on the 480-yard 10th hole and added three birdies to finish the round in a five 88.

His tremendous finish brought a 12,000 crowd enabled Ford to take over first place in the competition for top money of $7,000.

Art Wall, Jr., of Peconic Man-

Pa., and the half way mark leader

Fred Haas of New Orleans

were deadlocked after 54 holes with 208. Cary Middlecott of Memphis, Tenn., the non-practicing dentist, was one stroke behind them.

The Evangelistic Spiritual singers of Hot Springs, Arkansas will render a program, Sunday Octobor 2, at 8:00 p. m., at Harmon

C. M. E. Church, Saratoga, Arkansas. The public is cordially inited to attend.

Ozarks Impressive Over S. State

By The Associated Press

Only The College of the Ozarks managed to salvage something out of a miserable weekend for the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference.

Ozarks scored a surprising 27-7 triumph over Southern State in the only conference game while other

AIC members fell before non-conference foes.

Powerful Little Rock Junior College downed Arkansas A&M 20-6.

Florence (Ark.) State crushed

Henderson 33-7. Southeast Oklahoma edged Quachita 6-0 and Southeast Missouri romped over

Arkansas State Teachers 21-7.

A couple of days before

Akanas Tech, the perennial team to beat in the race for the AIC crown, had suffered its humiliating loss at Louisiana college, 26-19.

Only Jonesboro's Arkansas State,

an AIC underdog, handled an out-of-state opponent satisfactorily.

The Indians rolled to a one-sided 44-0 victory over Lewis College of Illinois.

They waited for their opportunities and the hard-hitting defense provided almost one per quarter.

They scored after getting the ball on a fumble, an intercepted pass and a long punt return.

Tackle Bill Fuller recovered an Oklahoma fumble on the Aggie 22 yard line to start the first drive. It was one of four Aggie bobbles that helped the Aggies to a 27-7 victory over the Razorbacks.

The Razorbacks moved the ball down to the five in short order, but were held by the Aggies on a 10-yard advance by Henry

Moore and then little Joe Thomason drove a fourth down pass to Ed

Ted Souter in the end zone.

Christian was superb on the keeper play as he led the second quarter march. It started when he grabbed a pass thrown by Oklahoma Quarterback Tom Fontaine and returned it 30 yards to his own 48. He accounted for 28 yards on two quarterback option plays and he whipped a screen pass to Fullback Gerald Nesbitt that covered the final 16 yards.

Nesbitt caught the ball at the right sideline, cut to his left and beat the Oklahoma defenders line to the end zone.

Guest of Sixth Grade Class At Hopewell Elementary School The Nelson-Hill American Legion Auxiliary was honored guest during the chapel hour at the Hopewell Elementary School, Friday September 22.

Following the presentation of the skit, Mrs. G. N. Davis, sponsor of the class, and President of the Auxiliary, presented the following members of the Auxiliary: Mrs. Lula Gamble, Chaplain; Mrs. Wanda Stuart, Chairman, Child Welfare Committee; Mrs. Rowena Taylor, Chairman, Membership Committee; Mrs. Louise Hicks, Treasurer; Mrs. B. Buchanan, Secretary; Mrs. Nava Carmichael, Correspondence Secretary; Miss C. Peterson, Reporter.

Remarks were made by most of the ladies, in which they expressed their pleasure and appreciation in having had the opportunity to join the faculty and students in the observance of "Constitution Week." The guests were warmly received by the faculty and student body.

After the program, Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. Hicks were taken on a tour of the new lunch room by Mrs. E. M. Nelson, principal of Hopewell.

Other ladies are members of the faculty of Hopewell School.

Coming and Going Mrs. Nellie L. Bell left for her home in New York City Tuesday September 20, after having spent two weeks in Saratoga, Ark., visiting her mother, Mrs. Lester Hopkins, and sisters, Mrs. Lillie Thomas and Miss Arlean Hopkins.

Pork Offense Better But Defense Best

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks added a few more plays Saturday night, but it still was the defense that played the bigger part in their 21-0 triumph over Oklahoma A&M.

Arkansas, deftly guided by quarterback Don Christian and George Walker, drove to touch-downs in each of the first three quarters and then threw up three fine goal line stands.

Although the Razorbacks only seven games, 243 to 228, they out-gained Oklahoma in yardage, 344 to 228. The Porkers ran far fewer plays than A&M which they often preferred quick-kick when they were in their own territory.

They waited for their opportunities and the hard-hitting defense provided almost one per quarter. They scored after getting the ball on a fumble, an intercepted pass and a long punt return.

Tackle Bill Ruller recovered an Oklahoma fumble on the Aggie 22 to start the first drive. It was one of four Aggie bobbles that day.

Dug Ford Leads Sponsors Meet

NEWTON, Mass., (AP) - Husky Doug Ford, the national PGA titlist from Yonkers, N. Y., carried a two-stroke lead with a nine under par 207 into the final round of the 72-hole Sponsors Golf Tournament at the Charles River Country Club today.

Ford struggled to a par 60 on the first nine yesterday, but cutting in he registered an eagle three on the 480-yard 10th hole and added three birdies to finish the round in a five 88.

His tremendous finish brought a 12,000 crowd enabled Ford to take over first place in the competition for top money of $7,000.

Art Wall, Jr. of Peconic, Mass., Pa., and the half way mark leader Fred Haas of New Orleans were deadlocked after 54 holes with 208.

Cary Middlecott of Memphis, Tenn., the non-practicing dentist, was one stroke behind them.

The Evangelistic Spiritual singers of Hot Springs, Arkansas will render a program, Sunday October 2, at 8:00 p. m., at Harmon C. M. E. Church, Saratoga, Arkansas. The public is cordially invited to attend.

This program is being sponsored by Miss Martha Payne Walker, Rev. J. W. Hutchinson, Pastor.

American Auxiliary To Meet The Nelson-Hill American Legion Auxiliary will meet Tuesday, September 27, at 7:00 p. m., in the American Legion Chapel. All members are asked to be present.

Report From Church Hill C. M. E. Church An appreciation service, honoring the pastor, Rev. J. W. Hutchinson, was held at Church Hill C. M. E. Church, Sunday September 18.

Pastors and members of the following churches were present, and participated: Mt. Pleasant A. M. E. Church, Rev. S. J. Benson, pastor; Mars Hill, Macedonia, and Clow Baptist churches.

Clow Speaker, Rev. Watson, pastor of Macedonia and Clow Churches.

The spirit of appreciation was very gratifying. $150.00 were raised in the rally.

Thanks to everyone whose participation and contributions made this service a success. Mrs. Parthena Bowles, Reporter.

Following the presentation of the bill, Mrs. G. N. Davis, sponsor of the class, and President of the Auxiliary, presented the following members of the Auxiliary: Mrs. Lula Gamble, Chaplain; Mrs. Wanda Stuart, Chairman, Child Welfare Committee; Mrs. Rowena Taylor, Chairman, Membership Committee; Mrs. Louise Hicks, Treasurer; Mrs. B. Buchanan, Secretary; Mrs. Nava Carmichael, Correspondence Secretary; Miss C. Peterson, Reporter.

Remarks were made by most of the ladies, in which they expressed their pleasure and appreciation in having had the opportunity to join the faculty and student body in their observance of "Constitution Week." The guests were warmly received by the faculty and student body.

After the program, Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. Hicks were taken on a tour of the new building by Mrs. E. M. Nelson, principal of Hopewell.

Other ladies are members of the faculty of Hopewell School.

Coming and Going Mrs. Nellie L. Bell left for her home in New York City Tuesday September 20, after having spent two weeks in Saratoga, Ark., visiting her mother, Mrs. Lester Hopkins, and sisters, Mrs. Lillie Thomas and Miss Arlean Hopkins.

Newcombe, Ford Get Call in First Game

BY JOE REICHER NEW YORK (AP) Don Newcombe, a huge right-hander who won 20 games for Brooklyn and Whiskey Ford, the little 5'11-inch winning left-hander who helped clinch the American League pennant for New York last Friday, will be the opening game pitchers when the Dodgers and Yankees meet at Yankee Stadium Wednesday.

Oddsmakers, who earlier had installed the Yankees a slight favorite, now have changed it to a "push" because of Mickey Mantle's pulled muscle, which threatens to sideline the star Yankee center fielder during the series.

The spirit of appreciation was very gratifying. $150.00 were raised in the rally.

Thanks to everyone whose participation and contributions made this service a success. Mrs. Parthena Bowles, Reporter.

Ozarks Impressive Over S. State

By The Associated Press Only The College of the Ozarks managed to salvage something out of a miserable weekend for the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference. Ozarks scored a surprising 27-7 triumph over Southern State in the only conference game while other AIC members fell before non-conference foes.

Powerful Little Rock Junior College downed Arkansas A&M 20-6. Florence (Ark.) State crushed Henderson 33-7. Southeast Oklahoma edged Quachita 6-0 and Southeast Missouri romped over Arkansas State Teachers 21-7.

A couple of days before Arkansas Tech, the perennial team to beat in the race for the AIC crown, had suffered its lumps at the hands of Louisiana College, 26-19.

Only Jonesboro's Arkansas State, an AIC underdog, handled an out-of-state opponent satisfactorily. The Indians rolled to a one-sided 41-0 victory over Lewis College of Illinois.

They waited for their opportunities and the hard-hitting defense provided almost one per quarter. They scored after getting the ball on a fumble, an intercepted pass and a long punt return.

Tackle Bill Ruller recovered an Oklahoma fumble on the Aggie 22 to start the first drive. It was one of four Aggie bobbles that were mended on by the Razorbacks. The Razorbacks moved the ball down to the five in short order, then moved on by the Razorbacks. A 10-yard advance by Henry Moore and then little Joe Thompson drove a fourth down pass to Ted Souter in the end zone.

Christian was superb on the keeper play as he led the second quarter march. It started when he grabbed a pass thrown by Oklahoma Quarterback Tom Fontaine and returned it 30 yards to his own 48. He accounted for 28 yards on two quarterback option plays, and he whipped a screen pass to Fullback Gerald Nesbitt that covered the final 16 yards.

The final Arkansas touchdown was a 2-yard drive into the end zone by Moore. Ronnie Underwood started the march with a long punt, then Moore took a 10-yard gain that gained 23 yards to the 11, but the ball was placed on the 2 because of a penalty. Walker then passed to Souter on the two and Moore went over the middle on the end play.

Coach Jack Mitchell seemed pleased with the Ozark performance although he added that they would have to show even more improvement to play Texas Christian in a good game at Fayetteville next Saturday.
